TITLE:	DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION – MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY (MHAs)

PURPOSE

To outline the process for responding to requests for clients’/patients’/residents’ personal information/personal health information from Members of the House of Assembly (MHAs)

POLICY

The privacy of all individuals who receive, or have received, services from Western Health must be maintained.

Western Health recognizes the right of individuals who are receiving services to request that their MHA inquire or advocate on their behalf to assist them in resolving issues related to their treatment/care/service. In such instances, it is recognized that MHAs (often represented by their Office staff) may request client/patient/residents’ personal information/personal health information (hereinafter referred to as information.)

Receiving the request

Where the requester is representing the Department of Health and Community Services, please refer to the policy Disclosure of Information – Government Departments, Agencies, Third Parties (9-02-15). Otherwise, where the client’s/patient’s/resident’s MHA is requesting information employees must:

1. Confirm with the requester that the client/patient/resident is aware of the request and that the requester has obtained appropriate consent. As necessary, please refer to policy Disclosure of Information – Obtaining Valid and Appropriate Consent (9-02-45) for direction.
2. Obtain a written request that includes the following information:

Only the electronic version of this policy is to be considered current. Paper copies may be outdated. This policy is uncontrolled when printed.

- a) The name and date of birth or MCP number of the client/patient/resident whose information is being requested,
  - b) The specific information (including the name of specific programs/services) being requested,
  - c) The contact information for the MHA who is requesting the information.
3. If the requester indicates that they are authorized to access information without consent, obtain the name and section of the applicable legislation. Following this, the employee must notify the immediate manager who, as necessary, may consult with the Regional Manager Information Access and Privacy or designate.

Preparing information for disclosure to the requester

When preparing the information for disclosure, employees must:

1. Ensure that the written consent of the client/patient/resident has been obtained using the Western Health Consent to Disclose/Obtain Information form (12-475). Alternatively, the requester may provide a disclosure of information form signed by the client, (e.g. from the requester's agency.) This is acceptable provided that the form includes the following information:
  - i) name and other sufficient information to positively identify the client/patient/resident (e.g. date of birth or MCP number) whose information is being requested,
  - ii) identity of the requester (name, title, MHA represented and contact information),
  - iii) signature of client or representative (see definition),
  - iv) signature of requestor, and
  - v) the date the form was signed.

Note: The References section of this policy provides a link to the Department of Health and Community Services Disclosure of Information to Members of the House of Assembly Policy which includes the disclosure forms used by MHAs when obtaining consent from individuals.)

2. Whenever possible, written consent must be obtained. Use verbal authorizations only in urgent or exceptional circumstances (e.g. time restrictions) with the reason for doing so outlined in the record. Employees may also follow up with written consent by forwarding the Consent to Disclose / Obtain Information form for the client/patient/resident to sign and return to the service provider.

Only the electronic version of this policy is to be considered current. Paper copies may be outdated. This policy is uncontrolled when printed.

3. Prior to disclosure, review the record to ensure accuracy of the information, e.g. misfiled information. As appropriate, remove or redact any such information from the record prior to disclosure, taking care not to alter or inadvertently disclose the original information. Consult with the Regional Manager Information Access and Privacy or designate as needed in such instances.
4. Document the following information in the client/patient/resident record:
  - i) the details of the request,
  - ii) where applicable, the title and section(s) of the legislation under which the information may be disclosed without consent,
  - iii) any direction that was sought,
  - iv) to whom information was disclosed, and
  - v) the specific information that was disclosed to the MHA.

The manager/director must:

1. As necessary, provide direction to employees with respect to receiving the request and preparing information for disclosure.
2. Consult with the Regional Manager Information Access and Privacy or designate as necessary regarding any concerns relating to receiving the request and preparing information for disclosure.

The Regional Manager Information Access and Privacy must:

1. Provide direction with respect to receiving the request and preparing information for disclosure.
